

1. Ad hominem (abusive)
2. Appeal to pity
3. Composition (group)
4. Appeal to people (bandwagon)
5. Appeal to people (exclusivity)
6. Division (whole to parts)
7. Appeal to people (bandwagon)
8. Appeal to force
9. Rigid application of a generalization
10. Appeal to people (group solidarity)
11. The lawyer claims the punishment would commits the fallacy of composition (parts to whole), and the sentence should apply to the person, but the judge commits the fallacy of division by apply it to the part. (Either way both are acceptable.)
12. could be seen as committing the fallacy of division
13. Tu quoque
14. Slippery slope/ Appeal to pity
15. Hasty generalization
16. Ad Hominem (abusive)
17. Appeal to pity
18. Slippery slope
19. Ad hominem (poisoning the well)
20. Appeal to force
21. Composition (parts to whole)
22. Appeal to people (bandwagon)
23. Appeal to ad hominem (circumstantial)